jonas büchel

community work

ambeli 29.august 2014

welcome

process

enviro

natural nment

man^{kind}

enviro

build

nment

settle ment
mankind

what

kind of creature (wo/man)

is that

?

once upon a time ...

... "imagine all the people"

... 'good old industrialized times'

eight person sleeping in shifts on 10m²

[pic]

people from various cultural backgrounds

[pic]

without any education nor any rights

imagine

the tension

industrialization
socialistic movement
settlement movement
critical thinking
individual emancipation

the birth of
community work &
social work

[social

individual - group - community

work]

bb²

promoting communities – feminism
rights – peace

JANE ADDAMS
UNITED STATES POSTAGE 10¢

toynbee hall/uk

communi ty
centers

hull house/us

social

from 'abuse' to 'use'

planning

community development work promotes the idea of communities, being places of unique but diverse identities, pro-actively fostering there very own environment …

… community work promotes the process of life!

collective [observing]

collective [describing]

collective [assembling]

building [trust]

[collective [reporting]]

collective [designing]

[collective planning]

[politics **]

Community Work is a powerful tool for social inclusion, promoting an intercultural dialogue between different target groups of society, fostering our all needs and values, such as tolerance, social dialogue, an active work against xenophobia, combating poverty and social exclusion and marginalization

urban institute, riga
jonas@urbaninstitute.lv
+371 29410487